Software Architect / Lead Software Engineer C / Java / PHP / RDBMS

Job Location

Quezon City, Philippines

Job Description

Reporting to the CTO, lead the software architecture, design and development function while adhering to the Agile development process, including extreme programming, adaptive system development, feature driven development, Kanban, Crystal or Scrum.

Summary of responsibilities:

- Lead the architecture of various software architecture framework and product modules in collaboration with the Product Manager and Software Engineering team.
- Conduct analysis of organizational needs and goals for rapid development and implementation of various application systems.
- Lead the review, analysis and modification of programming systems, including encoding, testing, debugging and installing of large scale e-commerce or enterprise systems.
- Oversee the day-to-day contact with the software engineering team including distribution of assignments, validation and completion of technical deliverables.
- Provide assistance in the development and refinement of the development and operations processes and methods (DevOps).

Required Background:

- A Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Information Systems, Software Engineering or Electronics and Communication Engineering related with 10 years equivalent work experience where at least 5 have been spent in Software Architecture.
- 8+ years of software development experience using various Software Development Life Cycle (SDLC) and various agile development processes such us extreme programming, adaptive system development, feature driven development, Scrum.
- QA Experience.

Preferred Experience:

- Experience in product development life cycle and exposure to marketing needs.
- 8+ years software development experience using at least 3 combination of SOA, C, JAVA, PHP, XML, RDBMS, SQL, Cloud, DevOps, Scrum.

Travel

Future Possibility – up to 50%

Education Required

Bachelor's degree in Computer Science / Information Systems / Software engineering or Electronics and Communication Engineering

Job Category

Software Engineering / Product Development / Marketing

Benefits

Market Competitive Salary, Benefits, Paid Vacation

Number of Openings

Two

Equal Employment Opportunity

Agile Solution Partners is proud to be an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer. We offer a very competitive compensation package including the unique opportunity to participate in profit sharing and/or equity ownership. We are committed to attracting, retaining and maximizing the performance of a diverse and talented workforce with quick opportunities for advancement.
We are in the Service Delivery business and in return require all of our employees to be diligent, efficient, demonstrate initiative, customer focus and friendly.